Group meets on Thursday in Room 3 at 9:30 AM

February 11 to April 15

Karla Swanigan (303) 880-4987

Jen Hatmaker takes us on a journey of interruption...God is interrupting the lives of Christ-followers and His church, reminding them that He cares deeply about issues of justice and mercy. He's calling people to be OK living with less, to engage with the poor and outcasts, and to find Jesus in the faces of the "least of these." This experience is a chance to connect with the mission of God to take Christ-followers out and down, engaging the problems of the world for the kingdom of God. In line with Isaiah 58:6-10, FIELD TRIPS to inner-city ministries will be a unique and powerful addition to this study of God's Word...living out these truths in our very own community. Cost is $15 which includes the workbook.
