

“See that this day you will see the favor of the Lord on this place. The wind will blow... the fire will come. Where deep wells have been dug down, prayers have gone up, and many have plowed. This day, I say THIS day, will be the day of the Lord. I will take pleasure in this day! Wells will be filled and the glory of the Lord will fill this place. In this day, the rising waters will be evident to all. My face will shine upon you. Stay in this place. Do not go until I say go, for my presence and my glory will go before you. Do not take your eyes off me. I am the Lord your God and my favor rests upon you. See to it that this day I will receive glory. My heart is for you. Do not try to be successful as others have been. That is not my plan for you. Do not look to the left or to the right. Your righteousness through my son will guide you and move you and my glory will be your rear guard. This will be evident to many and confusing to others, but know that I am with you and will cover you with my wings. Angels will come to you and minister in your midst. This is not for you, this is for me and it is for my pleasure. Seek only to please me - No one else! Your humility will break down walls and your favor will be evident to all. See to it, this day I am giving you a blessing that you cannot contain. Do not try to hold everything that comes. Allow it to fall and it will be picked up and carried by others. Prepare the way of the Lord!”
